

LOCAL AND GENERAL NEWS

W. A. Kinney has returned to the city.

There were several important work-outs at the race track this morning.

The house in which Miss Catherine Sullivan died on Liliha street has been condemned by the Board of Health.

10,000 Pieces of New Dress Goods at special bargain prices, at L. B. Kerr & Co., Limited, Queen street.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Widemann are still in San Francisco, and Mrs. Widemann has improved greatly in health.

Read the new announcement of L. B. Kerr & Co., in this issue. Hats for boys, perfumery for girls, are some of the features.

A requiem service was held today at the Roman Catholic Cathedral in memoriam of the late Antonio Laveira d'Oliveira.

500 Dozen Muslin Underwear at bargain prices. The ladies are invited to examine these at L. B. Kerr & Co., Ltd., Queen street.

The Hongkong Maru arrived last night from San Francisco with a few passengers for this port. She left this morning for the Orient.

Mr. Arthur Johnstone, the able city editor of the P. C. Advertiser has severed his connections with that paper and accepted a position on the Bulletin staff.

The City Carriage Co. is now in the livery business. It has buggies, surreys, wagons, etc., on hand at all hours of the day or night. Telephone 113.

Rear-Admiral Kempff one of the most popular U. S. naval officers who ever visited the islands was a through passenger by the Hongkong Maru for the Orient.

Gentlemen wishing the very latest Styles in Shirts Collars Cuff and Neck Ties and Hats should lose no time in calling at L. B. Kerr & Co's Limited, Queen street.

Kentucky's famous Jesse Moore Whiskey, unequalled for its purity and excellence. On sale at any of the saloons and at Lovejoy & Co., distributing agents for the Hawaiian islands.

The Salvation Army is now located in the Murray Hall, and it is to be hoped that its beneficent influence will be felt in regard to harmony when the next meeting of the Republican Club is held.

Japanese laborers at Olowalu and Lahaina are on a strike. The Nihau left for Maui yesterday at the request of the plantation agents. It is expected that the trouble will be settled amicably.

Prince Cupid and wife arrived safely in San Francisco. The jolly prince is called the Hawaiian Adonis by a S. F. journal. We hope the girls of the speedy city won't call him by the same name.

After a heated debate the Council of State yesterday killed the bill providing for expenses in connection with the Court of Claims. Mr. P. C. Jones made the motion which was carried unanimously.

The following officers have been elected by the St. Louis College Literary Society: C. H. Rose, president; B. Zablan, vice president; Emil A. Berndt, secretary and treasurer; Brother Thomas, manager.

If a new morning paper is to be established here as per rumor, Mr. A. S. Humphreys will not be the editor according to his own statement. Law business is good enough for him, and the newspaper men sigh, look envious and say, Amen.

The pilfering of periodicals is becoming a matter of common occurrence at the library. That the thieves are partial to high-class literature is evidenced by the fact that THE INDEPENDENT, Outlook, Truth, Century and publications of a like nature are the favorite loot with the literature-lifters.

It is a pleasure to be able to state that there is no plague at Koolan on this island. Drs. Garvin and Hoffmann returned yesterday and reported to the Board of Health that the two cases examined by them at the request of Dr. Carter did not come under the category of being "suspicious" even.

Our reporter made a mistake yesterday by announcing the marriage of the proprietor of the Elite Barber Shop, now at the Occidental hotel. The happy groom referred to is an assistant in the shop, and the proprietor, being a married man for some years, objects to any insinuations that may lead him into a bigamy case or to the divorce court.

The Supreme Court has adjourned sine die this day. Cases not disposed of are continued to the June term, subject to agreement for disposal during vacation.

There will be a mass meeting at Japanese this evening at 7 o'clock of which a resolution will be adopted protesting against the rules and personnel of the Court of Claims.

The moonlight concerts to be given next week by the government band will be at Emma Square on Monday, at Thomas Square on Tuesday and at Makee Island on Wednesday.

J. F. Colburn, one of the fathers of the Common Nuisance Laws, paid a fine of five dollars this morning for leaving his horse and vehicle untied in the public street. Mr. Colburn laughed and had no kick coming and didn't regret either the law or his fine.

CONDENSED FOREIGN NEWS.

Russia is arming against Turkey and Japan and the clash may happen any day.

An attempt is being made in Congress to bar the Hawaiian Chinese from entering California. Representative Kalah is the promoter of the movement.

General Joubert, the famous commander-in-chief of the Boer army died at Pretoria on March 28. The deceased was 68 years of age and the cause of death was peritonitis. Great grief is felt in Boerland at the sad death, which deprives the Boers a most valiant soldier.

Mafeking was not relieved according to latest despatches but the telegrams to the war office show that the garrison is in high spirits and ready to await the relief which soon must come.

Lord Roberts and the main army of the British are marching towards the Transvaal. "Bobs" is laughing at the threats of Krueger's bombarding Bloemfontein.

The total British loss of men in the South African campaign was figured at 16,418 at latest account.
